The Big Book •• Fourth Edition

Since its first publication in 1939, Alcoholics Anonymous, known as the ••Big Book,•• has helped millions recover from alcoholism. Now in its Fourth Edition, this essential text remains the foundation of the AA program, offering a message of hope, transformation, and spiritual awakening.

The Fourth Edition retains the original content while adding new personal stories that reflect diverse recovery experiences. These accounts offer inspiration and show that lasting sobriety is possible for anyone willing to follow the program.

Recognized as one of the most influential books on addiction and recovery, Alcoholics Anonymous is widely used by AA members, medical professionals, and spiritual advisors worldwide. Translated into multiple languages, its impact continues to grow.
